
The local golf and country club which it is planned to establish soon, will be known as the "Hill Crest" country club of Pauls Valley.

The first seventy-five members will be taken into the club for an initiation fee of $75.00, the next 25 for $100.00, etc. Trustees in charge of the further organization are R. K. Johnston, J. A. Kinnebrew, E. M. Ragan, B. A. Sparks and H. J. Taylor.

A complete nine hole golf course has been constructed under the direction of Perry Maxwell of Ardmore, who has been made an honorary member of the club. Fairways have been mowed and greens constructed.
