

Miss Maxwell Is Bride of Earl Deskins

SIMPLICITY marked the marriage celebrated Sunday morning in Dallas, Texas, when Miss Mary Belle Maxwell, daughter of Perry Maxwell, 612 McLish avenue, and the late Mrs. Maxwell, became the bride of Earl Deskins, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Deskins, 324 G street southwest. The vows were read by the minister of the First Presbyterian church in his study.

Morton C. Woods, uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage. She chose a heavenly blue dress, brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Her attendant, Miss Elgenia Moore, wore gray with yellow carnation corsage. Best man was Michael Cheney, Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Deskins left on a trip to Mexico City. They will be at home later at Hawkins, Texas.

The bride attended Abbott academy, Andover, Mass., and Wellesley college, Wellesley, Mass., where she majored in art. She also studied at the Soiborne in Paris. Mr. Deskins attended Staunton Military school, Staunton, Va., and the University of Oklahoma, Norman, where he was a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He is employed with the Warren Petroleum company.
