

The Hope Valley course itself was first opened in 1927, another product of Donald Ross design. The late Perry Maxwell directed a revamping of eight greens in 1940, but the 11th hole is as Ross originally designed it.