

Work on New Golf Course

HENRYETTA.—The golf course of the new Henryetta country club has been completed to the ninth hole, and work on the pavilion and artificial lake is being pushed to completion. The club was organized with $50,000 capital stock, all of which with the exception of a block reserved for increase in citizenship, has been subscribed.