

J. W. HIGNIGHT PASSES AT HOME

Funeral Is to Be From Harvey
Bros. Chapel This Afternoon.

Funeral services for James Washington Hignight, 69, brother of the late W. R. Hignight, one time chief of police here, are to be held at Harvey Bros. Funeral home chapel this afternoon at 4 o'clock when Dr. R. E. L. Morgan, presiding elder of the Ardmore Methodist district, will conduct. Burial will be in Rose Hill cemetery with Harvey Bros. in charge.

Hignight died early today after a two weeks' illness.

Bearers of the body will be Perry Maxwell, Charles L. Parker, Berry Ball, J. E. Cruce, Dee Jordan and Will Wimberly, while honorary pallbearers included Marvin Shilling, Sam Daube, W. B. Frame, G. T. Jordan, Carl Jones, C. O. Adcock, A. C. Bell, G. C. Adams, Ed Sandlin, Dr. Walter Hardy, Dr. Higgins, Max Westheimer, Tom Kyle, Mike Gorman, Jake Bodovitz, Louis Flschl and John B. Ogden.

In addition to his widow, Hignight is survived by three sons, William, Bryan and Jack Hignight; four daughters, Mrs. Lily Watson, Mrs. Sarah Senter, Mrs. Lottie Bell and Mrs. Laverda Conger; two brothers, Tom Hignight of Chickasha, and Joe Hignight, Ardmore; and one sister, Nannie Watkins, Ardmore.