

WORK GETS STARTED

ACTUAL construction work on the new Country Club golf course is expected to start late this week, according to President F. L. "Kirk" Kuykendall and Greens Chairman Lew Rose.

J. P. Maxwell, son of Perry Maxwell, noted golf course architect who will direct the project, already is here and the designer is expected to arrive this week to "break ground" for the new layout.