SPRINGFIELD, MO.

as completed. Then a committee was appointed to go over the course and to report to the best of their ability whether or not the course was 70% completed, which would justify the payment of the $3500⁰⁰. Their report was that in their opinion it was nowhere near that far along. Now, if they know or not, I cannot say, for what I know about building golf courses is nil, but all I can do is act on the committee findings. I am still of the opinion that with a favorable spring will be ready to open late this summer for I have all the confidence in the world in you.

I'd suggest that you try to get up around February 1st meet with us & get everything straightened out. No one
