

PLAN GOLF COURSE

NORMAN, Okla., Oct. 13—(AP)— Work will begin Monday on a new 18-hole golf course on the east side of the south campus of the University of Oklahoma.

The university regents awarded the contract for the project to Perry Maxwell yesterday. The course, to cost $84,300, is expected to be ready for play September, 1950, Maxwell said.
