

WOODS AND MAXWELL TAKE DOUBLES CUP

After losing the first set of the final championship match to Bill Potter and Hayden Lacy by a count of 4-6, Mort Woods and Perry Maxwell whipped their title-questioners off the courts in two final sets, Friday afternoon, with scores of 6-1, 6-3. Friday's tournament was the final match in the city tennis club's doubles and closed a week ended with sensational playing. Winners in the double were awarded a large silver cup by the club.

Increasing interest can be noted since the tournament started, club members

Playing will be continued on during the summer on the city courts and indications are that several new members will be taken into the club.
