

Transients Work on Athletic Field

Fifteen transients were to be set to work on the athletic field site on the west outskirts of the city this noon, Perry Maxwell, landscape expert, said this morning.

These men, armed with axes, will be set at tree cutting and underbrush clearing. Maxwell will supervise the work and direct activities in such a way as to avoid cutting down trees that are beautiful and worth while.

