

NEW GOLF LINK IS OPENED HERE

Richard Grout Made High Score in First Foursome Played on Glenwood Course Tuesday

Much interest attended the opening of the new Glenwood nine hole golf course to the public Tuesday. Among the large number of Ardmore golf enthusiasts were many who expressed a determination to learn the game.

The first foursomes was played by Sherman Pyle, Richard Grout, H. M. Veal and Oscar DeVeney. In this foursome Mr. Grout made five straight fours on the second round.

Mr. Grout is the new instructor in golf at the Dornick Hills country club. He was presented with 10 pounds of coffee by A. York, representative of a local coffee concern for having the best score card.

In the first round of the foursome Mr. Pyle and Mr. Grout made a score of 39 points and Mr. DeVeney and Mr. Veal made a score of 40.

The new golf course is owned by J. A. and W. A. Edwards. Privileges to play may be obtained by seeing the owners during the morning at their office in the Simpson building.