

GOLF COURSE ESTIMATE

SENT TO WINSTON-SALEM

An estimate of the cost of construction of a municipal golf course, on some 76 acres of land adjoining Gillespie Park school, has been prepared by city engineers in accordance with sketches made by Perry Maxwell, Tulsa, Okla., golf course architect.

The estimate, sketch and the application for WPA financial aid was sent to Winston-Salem yesterday. The city will assist in financing the project, if federal aid is obtained.