

Tennis, His Hobby.

If Perry Maxwell has a hobby which he thinks more of than demonstrating that Bermuda grass makes the finest pasture that can be grown in Oklahoma that hobby is the playing of tennis. He left here Friday afternoon with his tennis equipment to visit the State University at Norman. The A. and M. college and the university teams played there Saturday afternoon and in the morning hours the dean of the university and Mr. Maxwell tried their skill at tennis.