

Maxwells Go to Shreveport, La.

Perry Maxwell and his son, Press Maxwell, left today for Shreveport, La., after a brief visit in Ardmore. They have just finished nine holes for the army golf course at Randolph Field, San Antonio, Texas, and will start building a nine-hole golf course at Camp Hood, west of Temple, Texas, within a couple of weeks.

The elder Maxwell was here for a few hours only, but his son had spent the past several days with relatives in Ardmore. He brought along his pedigreed Chow dog.
