

Miss Maxwell to Study Art at Paris University

Miss Mary Bell Maxwell, daughter of Perry Maxwell, 612 McLish avenue, sailed from Galveston Monday on the Estagne for a year's stay in France. She was accompanied to Galveston by her father, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Howe D. McCollom, 608 McLish avenue, who have returned home.

In the French capital Miss Maxwell, who was graduated from Wellesley college in June, will study the history of art at the University of Paris.

She anticipates an unusually interesting cruise that will include a stop at Havana, two Spanish ports and the Canary Islands.
