

10 Years Ago

From Files of the Daily Ardmoreite
Aug. 5, 1926

W. L. Crittenden, former attorney for Gov. M. E. Trapp, with the Oklahoma Gas and Electric company, was in Ardmore.

T. B. McLish was called to Shamrock, Texas, by the injuries received by his son, Windell who sustained a broken leg.

Mrs. Hugh Ledbetter and family, 31 C street southwest, returned from Sulphur, where they had been for two months.

Mrs. M. L. Davidson of Sanger, Texas, arrived for a visit with her son, Ira Davidson, and family, 1021 West Main.

Dan Mahoney of Tulsa was making preparations to move his family to Ardmore, where he was connected with the Sinclair Oil company.

Mrs. Carrie Maxwell, 911 Stanley boulevard, accompanied by her son, Perry Maxwell, left for Battle Creek, Mich., where Mrs. Maxwell underwent treatment.