Showing This Body to be in a Healthy and Prosperous Condition—Interest Taken.

Sidney Suggs, W. C. Kendall, W. P. Poland, D. Laro, A. W. Dunham, W. F. Whittington, W. A. Ledbetter, C. W. Baumbach Mayor R. W. Dick.

The foregoing names is the personnel of the board of directors elected at the annual meeting of the Ardmore Commercial club held at the city hall last evening.

Despite the inclement weather there was a fair attendance. A feature of the meeting was the intense interest manifested in the selection of the board. It was agreed that live and active workers were needed on the board of directors and the men selected last night are among the most influential in the city, men who are thoroughly alive to the needs of Ardmore and who intend to work unceasingly in behalf of the town.

The annual reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. The report of Treasurer Bright showed that the revenue of the organization since last March amounted to $1478, and that $1812 had been disbursed, leaving in the treasury $466, with December dues to come in. The club is free from indebtedness and is in a flourishing condition.

The report of the secretary dealt with the affairs of the club, what it had accomplished during the past year and its work in general.

The finance committee also reported. The reports were received, adopted and ordered filed.

The election of the officers was then held. The by-laws provided the method of election and President Croce appointed the nominating committee, consisting of Sidney Suggs, W. P. Poland and A. W. Dunham. It was moved and seconded that the nominating committee constitute members of the board. Carried.

After the committee reported the newly elected directors met in the Mayor's office and selected the following officers for the ensuing year.

Lee Croce, president; W. F. Whittington, First vice president; Sam Noble, Second vice president and Perry D. Maxwell, treasurer.
