

Perry Maxwell, who built the Twin Hills course and has constructed many fine layouts over the country, raced in from Tulsa. "This is great," he said. "You know, this is the first national tourney that has ever been played over one of my courses."