

Perry D. Maxwell Here for Tournaments

Perry D. Maxwell, father of the Dornick Hills Country club course, arrived here late Saturday afternoon to be present at the 1929 amateur and pro-amateur tourneys, which will be played today and through May 24.

Maxwell has been in Ann Arbor, Mich., designing a course and made a special visit to Ardmore to be present at the state tourneys.

A special match has been arranged by Wille Brown, starter of the meet, but who is to complete the foursome has not been announced.
