

DORNICK HILLS HONORS MEMBER

Perry D. Maxwell Is Made
President Emeritus, a Life
Job; John Carlock
Elected President.

After serving for 11 years as president of Dornick Hills Country club, Perry D. Maxwell declined to accept the place at an election held Thursday and he was honored by being selected president emeritus of Dornick Hills, which honored position he will hold the balance of his life.

Dornick Hills was discovered by Mr. Maxwell. It was his genius that brought it into being. It was his skill that made it one of the most celebrated golf links in the entire United States.

At a general meeting of the stockholders, nine directors were chosen. They are John H. Carlock, Perry D. Maxwell, L. H. Love, Ernest Williams, John R. Dexter, Oscar Deveny, Wirt Franklin, Charles Herd and Frank Head. When this board met Thursday to elect officers, John H. Carlock was chosen president, L. H. Love vice president and Ernest Williams secretary.
