

INTERESTING GOLF GAMES YESTERDAY

---

G. R. CROOKS, GOVERNOR CRUCE,
PERRY MAXWELL AND MR.
HUME PLAY FAST FOURSOME
— CROOKS AND MAXWELL WIN.

---

G. R. Crooks of McAlester, professional golfer of the McAlester Country club, was in the city yesterday and in the afternoon a number of people saw him play at the Country club.

An interesting foursome was played with Crooks, Maxwell, Cruce and Hume up, which resulted in a victory for Crooks and Maxwell. Crooks set a new mark for the course of 39.

Mr. Crooks has been invited to return and spend several days here, and has consented to do so. This will give the club members an opportunity of learning more of the fine points of the game, and stimulate interest in the sport.

All the shares of the club have been subscribed, and the books are now closed. Work on the club house and grounds is progressing nicely, and soon the furniture will be installed, and the house warming will take place.
