

Shovel at Golf Links.

Arrangements have been made for the moving of a steam shovel to the golf grounds south of town which are being prepared for the opening next season. Work has been progressing rapidly on the course despite inclement weather conditions.