
WORK on the Twin Hills golf and country club continues to progress with speed, nearly all of the fairways having been cleared and some of the bases for the greens have been filled in.

It is beginning to look like a golf course.
