

MAYOR HEFNER ENTERTAINS FOR PERRY MAXWELL

Mayor Bob Hefner entertained the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at luncheon at Ardmore Pharmacy yesterday. It was a go away party for Perry Maxwell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who is leaving for the east.

Among the subjects discussed were ways and means to get away from cotton planting, the launching of a campaign for the state to build highways during the period of depression, and a resolution was adopted commending the board of county commissioners for their excellent road building campaign now being executed. C. D. Lewis of the O. N. M. & P. railway visited with the party and made the statement that his company is making a cost estimate of building a viaduct under the tracks of the road on K street northwest.
