

ALUMNAL REUNION.

The Graduates of Marion Graded School
Gathered Monday Evening

AND HAD 'A ROYAL GOOD TIME.

Prof Evans and his splendid corps of teachers, ever alive to the interest of the school, and the enjoyment as well as success of their pupils, while in school and after leaving it to fight the battles of life, arranged for a reunion of all the graduates, since the organization of the school. Monday evening there was a gathering in the spacious halls of the school building and the occasion was a red letter page in the history of the school. The following programme was arranged for the occasion:
