

Maxwell Pleased With New Club at Greenville, Texas

Rowan's Country Club is the name of the new club at Gainesville, Texas, according to Perry Maxwell, who with a party of friends attended the opening dance of the club Wednesday night.

Mr. Maxwell made plans for the organization of the club several months ago and has assisted in its development since that time.

Visitors from every point in northern Texas were present and according to Mr. Maxwell it was one of the best affairs he had attended in some time.

Those from Ardmore who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Strehley and daughter Caroline, Reese Evans, Robert Sayre, Miss Levina Woods and Mr. Maxwell.
