

Merit Badges Awarded

The first Boy Scout court of honor ever convened in Ardmore met on Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock.

This is decidedly a step forward in scouting in the city and marks the beginning of considerably better work in this line of activity for boys.

The Ardmore court of honor is composed of Henry D. Rinsland, president; James Barron and Perry D. Maxwell. The session Wednesday was for the purpose of examining Scouts James Dolman, Richard Conine and Ray Howard for merit badges in subjects in which they thought themselves qualified.
