

BOARD ORGANIZES OKLAHOMA C. OF C.

E. Bee Guthrey of Tulsa Vice President, For- mulates By-laws

NORMAN, June 2.—The temporary board of directors of the proposed chamber of commerce of Oklahoma, consisting of 25 members appointed at a conference held here last week, met today and organized a state chamber of commerce, elected temporary officers and an executive committee and appointed a committee on constitution and by-laws.

J. F. Owen of Oklahoma City was elected temporary president of the state chamber, with E. Bee Guthrey of Tulsa, first vice president; R. K. Woten, Chickasha, second vice president and J. K. Moore, Oklahoma City, secretary-treasurer.

The following members of the executive committee were elected from the congressional districts of the state: First district, Cyrus S. Avery, Tulsa; Second district, D. A. Fink, Muskogee; Third district, Perry Maxwell, Ardmore; Fourth district, E. K. Frank, Oilton; Fifth district, E. K. Gaylord, Oklahoma City; Sixth district, P. P. Duffy, Duncan; Seventh district, Dr. G. F. Border, Mangum; Eighth district, Roy L. Emry, Enid.

The next meeting of the temporary officers and executive board will be held at Oklahoma City, the date of which has not been announced.