

Maxwell Sisters Leave for College

Miss Mary Belle Maxwell and Miss Dora Maxwell have concluded a delightful vacation visit to their father, Perry Maxwell, 612 McLish avenue, and other relatives in Ardmore, and are now on their way east to reenter college.

They will be joined in Michigan by their father for the remainder of the trip east. Before resuming their studies the two sisters will attend the American amateur golf tournament at Philadelphia in which Bobby Jones plays. If the celebrated Atlantan wins this tournament he will have been victorious in all four of the big golfing events of the year.

Miss Mary Belle will continue at Wellesley college, Wellesley, Mass., while her sister probably will enter Penbroke college, which is the women's division of Brown university located at Providence, R. I.
