

WELL KNOWN GOLFER HERE YESTERDAY

"COMMODORE" HEARD, ONE OF THE BEST GOLFERS IN THE SOUTH, PAYS VISIT TO LOCAL COUNTRY CLUB.

"Commodore" Heard of Houston, one of the best golfers the south has produced, was a guest yesterday at the Dornick Hills Country Club, and played on the local course in a four-some composed of himself, Perry Maxwell, Innes Millar, the local professional, and W. D. Hume. Mr. Heard made a score of 81 for 18 holes, which is considered good when it is taken into consideration that it was his first game on the local links.

Mr. Heard was very enthusiastic concerning the possibilities of the local course, and stated that its natural advantages were unequalled in the south.

Mr. Heard was the runner-up at the last tournament for the championship of the south, and was defeated by Reuben Bush of New Orleans by a very narrow margin.
