

P. D. MAXWELL

VISITS PAULS VALLEY

P. D. Maxwell, golf expert and enthusiast, and the president of the Gist Hill country club at Ardmore, was in Pauls Valley Wednesday and Thursday in the interests of the club whose organization is soon to be perfected here.

Maxwell laid out a course on the proposed site of the club and prepared a fairway and four holes while here. He is very enthusiastic over the adaptability of the grounds for an excellent course at little expense.

At a meeting held by a number of interested parties Wednesday night the following were named temporary trustees to have charge of the organization of the Pauls Valley club: R. M. Love, J. A. Kinnebrew, B. A. Sparks, H. J. Taylor and E. M. Ragan.
