

MAXWELL HERE TO BUILD LINKS

To Start Laying Off Lake- view Course This Morning

Perry D. Maxwell, of Ardmore, Okla., a former Paducahan and one of the foremost golf course architects of the world, arrived in the city yesterday and today will begin laying out the golf course at the site of the new Lake View Country Club on the Lone Oak road. Mr. Maxwell said many months will be required to complete the course, but that he expects it to be ready for use next summer. After looking over the grounds, Mr. Maxwell said he would lay out one of the finest golf courses in Kentucky.

Mr. Maxwell has made a hobby of golf course architecture, and has studied the art thoroughly, having visited all the great courses in America, Scotland and England.

Mr. Maxwell recently laid out a course at Oklahoma City which cost $100,000, and remodeled a course at Muskogee, Okla., at a cost of $35,000.
